Allocate Software's Belfast office is located near to St Georges Market; just half a mile from Belfast's West link which provides easy access to the M2 and M3 arterial routes to the north and south respectively. Easy access to both Belfast City airports, for regional flights and Belfast international for longer flights are both within half an hour's drive using the M2. Rail links are also very convenient with the building being a mere 2 minutes from Belfast's main Central station. Also Belfast's main Bus terminal 'Laganside' is close to hand within a quarter of a mile, offering frequent services province wide.
